SENATOR ALAN CLARK

ADVOCATING FOR CHILDREN

Alan has been the undisputed leader in the legislature on much needed child welfare reform. From creating a child welfare oversight committee which he chairs to creating a special ombudsman to advocate and investigate for children in the system, advocating for relative placement, and leading to get the necessary funding to get caseloads down and foster parent numbers up, Clark has personally passed 20 different measures on child welfare.

As your State Senator, Alan Clark has fought for:

More Funding for Foster Care

Alan supported an increase to DHS's Division of Children and Family Services of around $27 million in fiscal year 2018 and another $12 million in FY19. The boost has helped more children find safe homes where they can find the care they deserve. The foster care population had been growing at around 20 percent annually.

Transparency & Accountability

When serious issues came to light regarding the Department of Human Services abuses in the foster care system, Senator Alan Clark led the fight to require more legislative oversight and transparency from DHS.

Protecting Your Civil Rights

Spent literally hundreds of hours as an individual State Senator investigating the policies and practices of the Division of Child and Family Services (DCFS) of the Arkansas Department of Human Services (DHS) and the Crimes Against Children Division of the Arkansas State Police (CACD) in order to protect your civil rights.

Helping Your Voice Be Heard

Held hearings that included aggrieved parents & grandparents, various public employees including top DHS, DCFS & State Police officials, experts in various related fields, DHS legal counsels, other lawyers, and at the last December 2016 meeting, circuit judges and an Arkansas Supreme Justice all testifying under oath!
